

Institute of Archaeology Monograph Series – 1

HOFSTAÐIR. EXCAVATIONS OF A VIKING AGE FEASTING HALL IN NORTH-EASTERN ICELAND

The long awaited publication of the Institute's excavations of the Viking settlement of Hofstaðir in Mývatnssveit is now available. An international group of 45 archaeologists provide an in-depth and detailed analysis and interpretation of the 1992-2002 investigations of this classic site. At c. 500 pages with over 200 illustrations, the volume represents a landmark in Icelandic archaeology and will set a new standard for excavation monographs.

The monograph is in English with an extended Icelandic summary.

The price for the book is 5.990 ISK (30 £/48 $/35 € not incl. shipping costs). Orders can be placed by sending an e-mail to kristborg@instarch.is or by telephone +354-5511033.